DAY 7
Sunday
New Delhi / Varanasi
Hotel:Radisson Blu or similar

This morning we will take flight to Varanasi. In the afternoon, we take a trip to the Buddhist city of Sarnath. It is here that the Buddha preached his first sermons after attaining enlightenment. Evening, we visit the ghats of Varanasi to witness the performance of Ganges Aarti. See the Hindu devotees performing the "Puja" with lighted lamps. The view is very mesmerizing and the ambience is spectacular in the backdrop of the beating of cymbals and bells as well as the incessant chanting. (B)

DAY 8
Monday
Varanasi / New Delhi /Home

At dawn, visit the sacred Ganges for a boat ride. Every morning at dawn hundreds of worshippers can be seen bathing in the sacred waters. The great river banks are lined with an endless chain of stone steps—the ghats—that stretch from one end of the city to the other. Proceeding downstream at a leisurely pace, you would be pointed out the significant temples and buildings as well as the changing architectural style. The smoke that billows from the crematoriums on the edge of the river gives testimony to their final release from life’ s earthly confines. We would dock our boat at Manikarnika (Cremation) Ghat. On any given day, anywhere from a few dozen to a few hundred corpses are cremated here; the ghat is assiduous with activity as the cremated bodies threw up smoke and fire. Following the boat ride we set off on foot to explore the inner city. Through a twisted maze of narrow alleys, home to numerous shrines and pilgrim shops, we walk back a few centuries. Life here has stood still for years.This afternoon, transfer to the airport to board your flight back to New Delhi and connect to your international flight for your flight back home as your trip comes to an end. (Suggest to the departure time of your international flight after 21:00) (B)
