- About 7:00-8:30 Guided tours meet you at hotels or pick-up points to take you to Chichen Itza

- approx. 11:30-13:30 Chichen Itza Chichen Itza is a large-scale pre-Columbian Mayan archaeological site, in 2007 with the Great Wall of China, the Colosseum and other monuments were named "The Seven Wonders of the New World." Despite the destruction of the city by time and looters, there are still many beautiful stone buildings, most famously the magnificent "Kukulcan Pyramid" that stands in the middle of the city. Well-known buildings such as the "Ju-Court" "Samurai Temple" and "Oval Observatory" in the city will also make people marvel at the wisdom of the mysterious ancient Mayan civilization. The world-famous Chichen Itza, which has been listed as a "must-visit destination in life" by the media in many different countries, attracts millions of visitors from all over the world each year.

- About 13:30-14:15 Mexican Special Buffet Lunch

- Approx. 14:15-15:00 After lunch at the Iquiquil Pit, visit the naturally dissolved "Sacred Well" Iq KilTian Pit. "Sacred Well" is a private place where ancient Mayan kings and princesses bathe, and jade casts a cave in the rain god. The turquoise waters under the tropical vine cover are a great place to take pictures. Here you can experience exciting "high platform diving", or play with the small fish in the pool, spend a cool and pleasant afternoon. You can choose whether or not to swim in the pit.

- About 15:00 Go to Cave Swedun Natural Well

- About 16:00 Arrive at the Mysterious Svedun Natural Well to see a variety of natural stalactite landscapes. Standing in the middle of the cave, with the sun at the top of the cave, as if standing in the middle of nature's stage. The lake is clear and green, like breaking into a space of alienity, the beauty is suffocating

- About 16:45 return
